

Family History Connections and the Genealogical Society of Victoria present

How do you think you got here?

Immigration to Victoria in the Nineteenth Century

A seminar examining the motives, mechanics and experience of immigrating to the Colony of Victoria

Sat 29
March

9am to 4pm

Featuring Prof. Dianne Hall, Dr. Liz Rushen and others

Docklands Library, 107 Victoria Harbour Promenade, Docklands (via the No. 11 or 48 Tram)

For the full program and to book visit either gsv.org.au | familyhistoryconnections.org.au

Programme

9.00 – 9.20 Registration

9.20 – 9.30 Welcome

9.30 – 10.30 Session One – Why did they come?

Pro. Dianne Hall

10.30 – 10.50 Morning Tea

10.50 – 11.50 Session Two - What schemes brought migrants to Australia?

Dr. Liz Rushen

11.50 – 12.30 Session Three - Resources for research -

Immigration Museum - Darralyn Cusack

PROV, SLV and TROVE - David Down

FHC - Bronwen Bennett

GSV - Meg Bate

12.30 – 1.15 Lunch Break

1.15 – 2.00 Session Four - What happened on the voyage?

Presentations by Colleen Arulappu

Claire Dunlop

Graham Thorley

2.00 – 3.30 Session Five - What did immigrants experience on arrival in Melbourne?

Case studies presented by Jenny Redman

Darralyn Cusack

Peter Tonkin

Jill Trethewey

Meg Bate

3.30 – 4.00 Seminar Wrap Up

Members $70

Non-members $90

Morning and afternoon tea, and tea and coffee will be provided.

For more information and to register visit:

www.gsv.org.au or www.familyhistoryconnections.org.au